AFFIDAVIT

State of Ohio

ss.

Knox County

The undersigned, counsel for plaintiff, having been first duly sworn according to law, hereby deposes and states that service on one or more of the defendants in this action cannot be made because their residence or business address is unknown, and cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence.

For all parties whose identities were known, and for whom an address existed in the records of the Knox County Treasurer, Knox County Auditor, or Knox County Recorder relating to the real property which forms the basis of this action, service was first attempted in accordance with Civil Rules 4.1 and if applicable, 4.6. For parties whose names were known, but for which affiant had no last known addresses, affiant acted in conformity with standard practices in this case, which included: Consulting the local telephone directory; conducting internet name searches; conducting a social media search; and checking the county auditor's records for a different tax mailing address for any properties owned within Knox County. Because the law does not require a futile act, no action was taken to ascertain the residence or business address of persons whose very existence is unknown, such as the unknown guardians, conservators, trustees, trust beneficiaries, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of a party that has, or may claim, an interest in the real property which forms the basis of this action.

This affidavit affects all persons listed in the Notice by Publication relating to this case for which service is not otherwise shown in the court's records, a copy of which will be filed once publication has been completed.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles T. McConville
Prosecuting Attorney
